00:26:10 Becky Sullivan: Not about the quality...

00:26:36 Elise Spang: So why have there been so few programs on the adoption list in the past?

00:26:59 Amy de la Salle: Can we prevent the proposed new curriculum from being 100% online? How. My concern is the harms /possible harms of ed tech.

00:38:10 Tami Wilson: Evidence-based literacy instruction focused on the pupil's specific needs. Progress monitoring. Early intervention in the regular general education program. One-on-one or small group tutoring. Further evaluation or diagnostic assessment.

00:38:51 Sarah Posluszny: This is so amazing!

00:40:05 Sarah Posluszny: Are the screening results also shared with the Reading Intervention Teachers on campuses?

00:40:45 Sarah Posluszny: Wonderful news!

00:42:42 Amy de la Salle: April, can you please get the LEA data for us from SCOE, please. DDCA is also doing this

00:43:06 Amy de la Salle: April- Thanks for asking about how adults can volunteer. !!! YES

00:43:06 Sarah Posluszny: Love this Tami! Thank you so much for sharing this great information! Also, happy retirement!

00:43:12 Kari LaSalle: Congratulations on your retirement! You leave large shoes to fill at SCOE. I am grateful for all of your help and support as I navigated the district adoption of the RDRS

00:43:34 Becky Sullivan: Replying to "April, can you pleas..." We are not collecting the district data here at SCOE

00:43:45 Becky Sullivan: Replying to "April, can you pleas..." Or do you mean the chosen screener

00:47:26 caroline.digman: As a teacher I would recommend sac literacy members who want to help just find their local school. At my school we have several "grandparents" who drop in. I don't see a big coordinated effort as feasible

00:47:27 Sarah Posluszny: Experience Corps plug! We're recruiting right now to have more people in the classroom to help support teachers and student's reading supports! <https://sccsc.org/experiencecorps/>

00:49:30 Angelina Molina (she/her/hers): And HOW to use them

00:50:23 Heather Calomese (she/her): Thanks, all. Good to see everyone, I am going to hop off. Have a good rest of your week and weekend!
