Dear Supporter,

On Saturday, March 13, 2027, 200 -300 Sacramentans will enjoy Sacramento's Premier Literary Event, and the 25th Anniversary of *Authors on the Move*_{SM}. This year we continue to advance the Sacramento Literacy Foundation's mission to help all children achieve grade-level reading. In celebration of the 25th year, we are featuring acclaimed female voices who hail from three countries, write in three different genres, and have 3 generational perspectives.

- Featured Authors: Myriam Gurba, Poppy State Alka Joshi, Daughters of the Pink City and Wayétu Moore, Habila.
- 24 -30 recently published regional authors dining with attendees
- A gourmet meal paired with a bottomless glass of wine.

Proceeds from Authors on the Move support our initiative to put high-quality, diverse, books in the hands of kids from Sacramento's most under-resourced communities. Last year's event allowed us to give 25,000 books to 5,000 kids.

Our gala will be held in the large ballroom at the Sheraton Grand Sacramento Hotel. The night begins at 5:00 pm with a champagne reception and a sneak peak of all the authors and their most recently published book. If you have further questions, please call me at (916) 836-3540. Thank you for your consideration.

Your support is valued.
Sincerely,

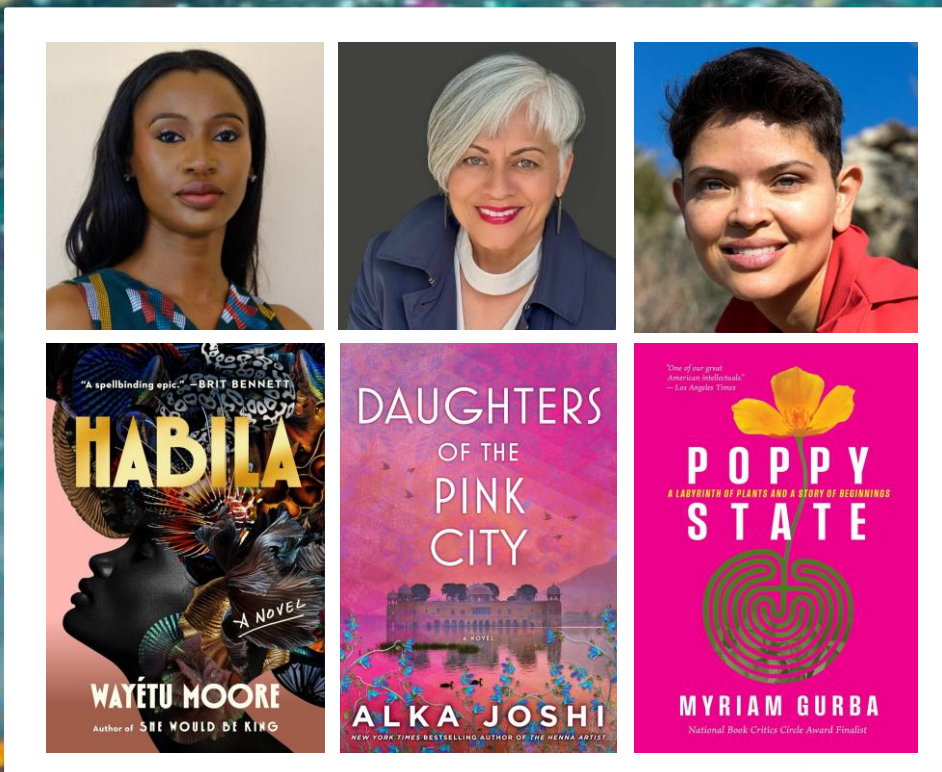

April L. Javist, Executive Director,
Sacramento Literacy Foundation, Board of Directors

Our 25th Authors on the Move®

SACRAMENTO LITERACY FOUNDATION

It's the 25th Anniversary of Authors on the Move and we are celebrating. We are bringing three powerful female keynote writers together for a night of literary adventure and delight. These three award winning authors, Myriam Gurba, Alka Joshi, and Wayétu Moore come from three countries, write in three different genres, and have 3 generational perspectives.
