On March 11, 2023, 240 Sacramentans will enjoy Sacramento's Premier Literary Event, and the 21st annual Authors on the Move: Surviving History. This year we continue to celebrate the Sacramento Literacy Foundation's new mission to help all children read. This year's event will feature:

- Keynote Author Angie Cruz, and her New York Times Review Editor's Choice, How Not to Drown in a Glass of Water.
- 23 recently published regional authors dining with attendees
- Sacramento's newest venue overlooking DOCO and the Golden 1 Arena
- A gourmet meal paired with a bottomless glass of wine.

Proceeds from Authors on the Move will support our initiative to put high-quality, diverse, books in the hands of kids in the Promise Zone and the operating support needed to carry out this program. Last year's event allowed us to give 20,000 books to 4,000 kids.

Our gala will be held in the large ballroom at Kimpton The Sawyer, overlooking the Golden 1 Center. The night begins at 5:00 pm with a champagne reception and a grand room filled with the most recently published book of each participating author. If you have further questions, please call me at (916) 836-3540. Thank you for your consideration.

Your support is valued.

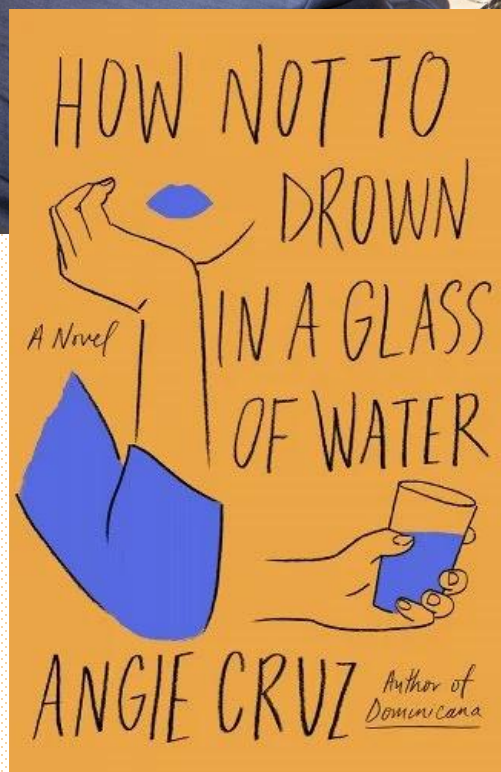

Sincerely,

April L. Javist, Executive Director,

FOUNDATION

Our Mission

Improve lives by collaborating with organizations in our community to advance literacy.

In addition to our keynote speaker, we have 23+, recently published, regional authors visiting guest tables during the evening.

Your sponsorship of Authors on the Move supports:

- Books in kids' hands and homes
  - High-quality, diverse books in the hands of Pre-K – 2nd grade students in the Promise Zone; one of our most challenged communities.
- Foundation Operations
