

00:50:15 April Javist: 80% of foster youth and incarcerated youth are not reading at grade-level.

01:16:35 Angelina Molina (she/her/hers): In CA we retain teachers at a LOWER rate than during the pandemic.

01:18:27 Dominique Donette (she/her): Reacted to "In CA we retain teac..." with

01:18:51 Dominique Donette (she/her): domdonette@gmail.com, 504-758-5302

01:19:27 Amber Wyatt: Thank you for sharing your values and aspirations for the Sacramento youth. Good luck to you both!

01:19:32 Dominique Donette (she/her): Reacted to "Thank you for sharin..." with

01:19:35 Dominique Donette (she/her): Replying to "Thank you for sharin..."
thank you!

01:21:45 Dominique Donette (she/her): I have to leave in 5

01:21:56 Xanthi Soriano: SCOE is responsible for educating some of our most vulnerable populations, including students in juvenile court schools and county community schools. What specific policies or resources would you prioritize to ensure these 'at-promise' students receive high-quality, equitable education?

01:22:11 Angelina Molina (she/her/hers): Reacted to "SCOE is responsible ..." with 01:22:21 Xanthi Soriano: As a board member, how would you balance our mandated role of fiscal and academic oversight (such as LCAP approvals and AB 1200 fiscal monitoring) with our mission to provide collaborative technical assistance to local districts?

01:22:59 Xanthi Soriano: Lastly, many of SCOE's programs, such as Career Technical Education (CTE) and Early Learning/Head Start, are discretionary and based on local needs. How would you evaluate which new regional services or 'Whole Child' programs SCOE should invest in to best serve our county's diverse student population?

01:23:23 Angelina Molina (she/her/hers): Reacted to "Lastly, many of oSCO..." with

01:25:07 Davon Thomas: Website: davon4sac.com
davon4sac@gmail.com

01:25:25 Faith Galati: Thanks Davon

01:27:36 Xanthi Soriano: Thank you for this great session everyone! Civic engagement at its best thanks to Literacy!

01:27:58 Angelina Molina (she/her/hers): Thank you both! I really enjoyed hearing more about you, your lived experiences, and how you see this important work